Tri-Parish Picnic

The Hurtado boys: Jadiel, Josiah and Javin after some face-painting done by Fr. Mike

Jessica Alvarado face-painting Ariana along with mom, Emma

From a St. Benedict parishioner:

Starting with the location and then the Mass, the picnic, in my opinion, was a smashing success. The food was wonderful and abundant and everyone seemed to really enjoy themselves. Thanks to the hard work of the committee members who organized it all and the fine cooks who made such a variety of tasty foods including Sam who is not only talented musically, but can also put together a darn good dressing. Much hard work was in evidence. I think that everyone enjoyed themselves and the weather cooperated, too. And thank you too, Father Mike, for spearheading the whole event.

Bible Study

Bible Study will take a little vacation over the summer months. But stay tuned for its return in September. Thanks to the leaders, Carl Carby and Nadia Negrón, and all who keep active with the study of the Scriptures.

Estudio Bíblico se tomará unas pequeñas vacaciones durante los meses de verano. Pero estad atentos a su regreso en septiembre. Gracias a los líderes, Carl Carby y Nadia Negrón, ya todos los que se mantienen activos en el estudio de las Escrituras.

From the Ladies of Charity:

Dear parish members of St. Francis,

The Ladies of Charity of Milwaukee thank you for your very generous donation of $1,585.00. We understand this was collected as a special collection in March [the 1st Sunday 2nd collection].

We thank you for choosing our organization and supporting our mission. This donation will be used to purchase new socks and underwear along with winter jackets, hats and gloves. Last school year, we were able to provide clothing for 1100 needy children in the Milwaukee area. This is only possible because of people like you and your generosity. On behalf of our families, we thank you again for your generosity of spirit. Blessings to all of you.

s/Mary Roets and Susan Westlake, co-presidents of Ladies of Charity.
