Join in honoring
Black Catholics
throughout history.

Join us for the third annual Capuchin Christmas, a festival of lessons and carols. Capuchin Christmas features scripture readings, chronicling the story of humanity's redemption in Jesus Christ, followed by singing and prayer. The music is performed across a variety of genres and styles, including 19th-century European carols, gospel, and more!

When: Sunday, December 7

Time: 4:00 p.m.

Where: St. Francis of Assis Parish

A festive social follows the program in the Capuchin Center with refreshments, holiday snacks, and music!

There is no cost to attend but free-will donations are welcome.

We hope to see you there! Merry Christmas!
